

Hong Kong-Israel Collaboration Workshop Series: AgriFood-Tech Speaker Bios - Opening Remarks

Peter Golovsky
Managing Director, Head of Family Office Services, Asia Pacific, Alvarium Tiedemann Holdings and Co-Lead, FSDC HKI Collaboration Working Group

Peter is a chartered accountant and seasoned senior leader with over 25 years' experience in global financial services, including the last 10 years in Hong Kong, during which he has achieved significant business growth in leading family office, fiduciary, and investment advisory businesses, working closely as a key adviser to some of Asia's largest families and family offices.

Peter is the Managing Director, Head of Family Office Services, Asia Pacific for Alvarium, a global Multi-Family Office with responsibilities for the organic and inorganic growth of the group across Hong Kong, Singapore, and Australia and its connectedness with Europe and the US.

Peter's specific expertise lies in advising global families and family offices, with a focus on board governance, business succession and inter-generational wealth transfer and planning. Peter has advised several Asian and global families with their cross-border planning (including the set-up of their family offices, charitable foundations, and private trust companies) and provided strategic advice in relation to their goals around philanthropy, charitable giving and creating a family legacy. Peter is regularly appointed as a non-executive board advisor for the global families he serves.

Peter relocated to Hong Kong in 2011 from his native Australia, where he had spent ten years in private wealth and advisory, holding senior distribution positions at both Macquarie and Westpac. Other previous experience included risk management, corporate governance and audit in both Australia and the US with one of the Big 4 accounting firms.

Peter is also a Board Director, Asia Chair and Head of International and Market Development for WinThisFight, a global philanthropy-based group set up to raise awareness and funds to fight against the human trafficking of women and kids globally.

Peter was raised in Sydney, Australia, is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Master of Commerce (Macquarie University) and a Bachelor of Commerce (UNSW). Peter is married with two children.
